

Julius

Julius foothills of Mount Elgon. He came from prayer for salvation. "I need to be saved" His clothes were dirty, and he was not well. He had swollen feet; he was unable to wear shoes. Asked about his feet he said, "God knows about my feet". We prayed for Julius's salvation and for his feet,

We returned the next day to find Julius washed and clean with clean clothes and light normal shoes on. God had shrunk his feet overnight.

The picture of us together was the only way in which we could stop him hugging us
